Hi Foss,

Thanks for your message. We were hoping to provide credit card information either by phone or email (if you have a form we can fill out and scan). Could we have an invoice to confirm what payment is due?

Thank you,

Anya

Hi Anya,

We received your packet for service on Avon Lifestyle and Naina Parekh today. I don't see that payment was supplied. How did you want to get the prepayment covered?

Good morning Anya,

Unfortunately, no. The only service you can go through with India is through the Hague Convention.

Please, let me know if you have any other questions.

kindest regards,

Hi Ilenia,

Thank you very much for your message. Is there any way to expedite service of process so that it takes less than 6 months?

Best regards,

Anya

Subject: Service in India

Hello Niya:

Thank you for contacting Ancillary regarding service of process in India. There is only one way to serve documents there. Ancillary routinely serves process there as well as all over the world.

Hague Convention: Service of process can be made in this country under the procedures of an international service of process treaty called the Hague Convention. Convention of 15 November 1965 on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters, 20 UST 361, 658 U.N.T.S. 163, 28 USCA (Appendix following FRCP, Rule 4). Service is made by an official of the foreign Court through their Ministry. Treaty service is always the preferred method of service. The fee is $595 and service usually takes around 6 months for service, however it can take an additional 6 – 8 weeks for the proof of service to be returned. Translations are not required.

*This type of service requires original documents from the court.

Ancillary Fees: International fees are prepaid. The above quoted fees exclude courier fees (FedEx) and notarization fees whenever a private process server's affidavit must be notarized.

Please call or email us anytime at your convenience, if you have additional questions or if you are ready to proceed.

Once again, thanks for contacting Ancillary. We look forward to handling this important matter for you.

kindest regards,
